

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The exterior work on the Library is finished.

Miss Coursen has charge of Fort-street School Primary Departments at present.

The private school conducted by Mrs. Ashford and Miss Carter was opened yesterday and has received a very large re-enforcement of pupils.

September 25th, the dead body of a negro was found in Hanalei stream. The finder was a Chinaman. It is supposed that he was drowned.

The attendance of Kawaihae Seminary was very small. The Kamehameha Girls' School seems to have taken the pupils from the Castle institution.

Does Consul-General Mills declare Honolulu an infected port or not? He seems to give out "clean" bills of health in a most accommodating and jocular manner.

St. Louis College opened this morning. Thanks to THE INDEPENDENT the Board of Health did not dare to pursue its insulting attitude towards the Catholics.

The tax collector and his pet Chinese assistant are becoming obnoxious. Mr. Shaw ought not to enter private residences at unreasonable hours. His presence might be misconstrued.

Agents of the local Board of Health have finally decided that mules are freight and not passengers. What the Maui Board will say is not certain. In the latter case it is ten days quarantine.

L. B. Kerr received by the Miowera a fine stock of Valenciennes Laces in edgings and insertions. Finishing braids in rich assortment and novel designs, and a complete assortment of hosiery.

In adjoining columns the Advertiser this morning gives the public its news under the headings: "The China Takes the Mail" and "How to Make Tomatoes." Honolulu Lahui, Brother Farrington!

In season or out of season every family should have a bottle of DIARRHOEA MIXTURE in the house. There is none better than DWIGHT'S, which has been dispensed by the HOLLISTER PHARMACY for the last twenty years.

This is the proper time to get rid of the old germ-infected clothes and have some new built. For that reason L. B. Kerr has imported Navy Serges in all qualities and weights superior to anything ever seen here.

The finest line of Wash Materials from ordinary Cottons to the finest Mulls and Muslins, Cotton Duck in all colors, Sateens, Cotton Challis and the daintiest and prettiest Flannelettes can be found at N. S. Sachs', 520 Fort street.

The fire department is proud of its new hose wagon built for it by the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co. The vehicle was tried by Chief Hunt yesterday and gives great satisfaction. It will probably be finished during next month.

The Louvre, under the capable management of Major E. H. F. Wolters and H. Klemme, is beginning to get under way. Even now you get the best there is to be had. When all the changes are made no better saloon in town will be found, say the proprietors.

To close them out Shirt Waists, formerly selling at $1.50 each, have been reduced to $1; and Pith Hats, which were selling at $2, from this on will be sold at $1 each. Call early before the supply is exhausted. A. Barnes, New Republic Building, King street.

The China left last evening about 1 o'clock. Her passengers from China were landed at the Quarantine Station and her freight on lighters. She received a clean bill of health for her courtesy in taking our mails. Bets are offered that she will be quarantined in San Francisco.

A Curious Memento.

J. J. Williams, the well-known photographer, received the following message on a piano-box from an old-time friend of his, who had been second lieutenant under him in the Hayes-Wheeler election, a quarter of a century ago. It reads as follows: "Kind regards to my old friend, Jas. J. Williams, if this should reach him, from Chas. D. Laughlin, per S. P. R. R. Co., to J. J. Williams, photographer, San Francisco."

This was on a New England piano, shipped from Boston, and is now in the yard of L. B. Kerr, Queen street. Mr. Williams would like to see his former junior of old times.
